

APPLICATION FOR LICENCE – PROPERTY AGENT - NOTES

Who can use this form?

The licence application form is for individuals to apply for a real estate agent licence, a property manager licence, a general auctioneer licence or a property representative licence under the Property Agents and Land Transactions Act 2016.

Do not use this application form if you require a licence to conduct business.

Applicant details - your details

You will need to provide proof of identity and your current residential address.

A photographic proof of identity is required such as a driver's licence, passport or a card which is issued by a state or territory government that includes your photograph.

If you are submitting a photographic identification document that does not include your current residential address, you can include an amenities bill (water, gas or electricity), a council rates bill or a bank statement (you can cover your transactions) which lists your current residential address. Do not send originals. Only photocopies of original documents certified as being a true copy of the original document by the following people can be accepted: Justice of the Peace, Commissioner for Declarations, Barrister/Solicitor or Notary Public.

Lodgement

Please lodge the completed application, supporting documentation and applicable fees to the Property Agents Board. All applications must include:

- National Police Record Check – issued not more than three (3) months before the date of lodging the application for licence
- Insolvency Check – this is to be issued not more than seven (7) days before the date of lodging the application for licence.
- Certified Proof of Identity and Residential Address – photographic proof of identity and if required a supporting document which provides your current residential address if your current address is not included on the photographic proof of identity document - certified as being a true copy of the original document by a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner for Declarations, Barrister/Solicitor or Notary Public.
- Details of Educational qualifications and experience as necessary.

By mail Property Agents Board, Level 1, 15 Victoria Street, Hobart

Email board@propertyagentsboard.com.au

Please ensure your application is fully completed and lodged with supporting documents and fees. If any information is missing or incomplete you will be advised in writing and you will be provided time to submit the missing items.

Application assessment timeframes

Your application is acknowledged in writing and at that time you are advised the date your application will be assessed.

Normal processing time for new applications is 15 business days.

If your application is refused, you will be advised in writing explaining why it was refused and setting out your rights and the process involved in appealing the decision.

If the licence is not granted, then a refund of fees paid less the application assessment fee will be refunded to you upon request.

Fees

A licence applicant is required to pay an application assessment fee and a licence fee. The fees for all licence categories are $630.19 which includes the non-refundable application assessment fee of $170.17.

Payment

Payment is accepted by EFT, BPAY, cheque or money order. A cheque or money order can be posted in, together with the application form – make it payable to Property Agents Board.

EFT payments can be made into

Bank Account	CBA
BSB	067 002
Account No.	0011 0109
Your Reference	Your Name

Payments can be made using BPAY through your bank or financial institution using the reference details that will be provided to you once the application has been received.

Refunds

You can withdraw your application at any time prior to the licence being granted or refused. If the application is withdrawn by you or refused you will receive a refund of the fees paid upon request, less the non-refundable application assessment fee.

Criminal History check

All applicants must provide a National Police Record Check with the application. In completing the relevant form for the National Police Record Check, the purpose category for seeking the certificate is “general employment”.

For Tasmanian residents only a National Police Record check issued by Tasmania Police will be accepted. Here is a link to the Tasmania Police website: Tasmania

For interstate applicants who do not have a Tasmanian return address or are not currently residents in Tasmania, those applicants will need to apply to a person in their State or Territory who holds a similar position to the Tasmanian Commissioner of Police. Here is a link to that jurisdiction:

Australian Capital Territory
Queensland
New South Wales

Northern Territory
South Australia
Victoria

Western Australia

Please note that the National Police Check that accompanies the application must be issued not more than three (3) months before the date of lodging the application for licence. The Property Agents Board must be satisfied that an applicant holds relevant qualifications and is a fit and proper person to hold a property agent licence.

Insolvency Check

An applicant must provide evidence of being a fit and proper person in relation to their solvency. The applicant is to provide an extract or a result report from the National Personal Insolvency Index (NPII) maintained by the Australian Government’s Australian Financial Security Authority.

The extract or result report from the NPII is to be issued not more than seven (7) days before the date of lodging the application for licence. A link to the relevant website is here

Previous licence

An applicant is eligible to obtain a licence if their name has been in the relevant part of the Register within a prescribed period.

Real Estate Agent	Person's name has been in Part 1 of the Register at any time during the 5 year-period immediately preceding the licence application

Some licences have an employment, experience or knowledge element. If you are required to provide evidence to support your application, then a signed and dated statement outlining the relevant information should be provided. It will not be enough to rely upon having held a licence for a period of time. For example,

- a detailed list of your real estate activities and transactions might demonstrate sufficient knowledge and experience.
- a current resume which details your prior employment history may satisfy an employment requirement.

Suitability

The Board must not grant an application for a licence unless it is satisfied that the applicant has the relevant qualifications to be licensed and is a fit and proper person to hold a property agent licence.

An applicant is not a suitable person to hold a licence if the individual is an undischarged bankrupt or if the person has made a composition or arrangement with creditors and the debts have not been paid in full or the terms have not been fulfilled or if the Board otherwise determines that the person is not a fit and proper person.

In considering whether a person is fit and proper the Board takes into consideration the applicant's criminal history. If there is a criminal history the Board will assess the number, frequency and timing of convictions and the nature and seriousness of any offence. The Board has developed a Fit and Proper Person Assessment policy which can be viewed on its website here.

Change of details

If at any time your personal details, existing licence details or suitability requirements change, you must notify the Board immediately.
